<h3>Title: The History of Money Laundering</h3>

<![if !supportEmptyParas]

Summary: Money Laundering is not only actual because of Bon Laden's Money trail, but Money Laundering or the research and acceptance of any kind of findings; is today a Gentleman's act. No one really will believe that Money Laundering will be eliminated after Bin Laden, if the World leading Banks, a hell of acting Presidents and Prime Ministers including a large group of private citizen are on the run to hide or find any kind of funds. This funding automatically includes funds from drugs, prostitutes, heroin, arms and other dark sources. The author has been working on this fact finding book for over 9 years and this publication is nothing else then facts and not one word of fictions. Money laundering, peoples involved direct or indirect, already the willingness to accept funds from any sources is one of the biggest crime of our century, but still considerate as a Gentleman's delinquency. It is time that the world understand that money laundering and only the acceptance of such a business is the main source of drugs, heroin, illegal business of all kinds, including children prostitution, flesh and arm trade. Not one crime includes and covers more other horrible crimes then money laundering and peoples involved direct or indirectly.
