

POSTCARDS FROM BAGHDAD

film, speaker, and discussion

a look at
life in Iraq

before and after the bombings

Mehdi el Radhi is an Iraqi currently living in Britain. He is presenting footage of his visit to see his family in Baghdad in January. The film shows how regular people are coping with 12 years of sanctions and the build up to the current crisis. This film is not a documentary but a snapshot of the plight of average citizens of Iraq. Mehdi will be available to answer questions after the film.
