

>>> Taking Pictures? Shooting Video? Doing Interviews?

Your material is needed! What are you planning to do with your material after this event is over? What ever it is, you can use it now on Indymedia to help report the truth about an event, issue or action.

Indymedia is a website that is run and maintained by volunteers, and which allows people to upload and share their own reports, pictures, video and audio. It is a place for the passionate telling of truths, a way of bypassing the agendas of the corporate media, through the direct creation of our own stories.

>>> All you need to start is hit the

'PUBLISH' link on the front page:

>>> http://cambridge.indymedia.org.uk and follow the simple instructions on the Publish page. You can upload text stories, pictures and video at will. You can also send you comments and views on other news stories.
