

A Halloween

Ride

in solidarity
& celebration

Friday 28 October, 5pm

College Green, Bristol City Centre

-  It's been a while since Bristol saw a Critical Mass bike ride, now it's time for one!
-  Solidarity: with the monthly CM in London that the police are trying to shut down after 12 years of rides – see WWW.CRITICALMASSLONDON.ORG.UK for more info
-  Solidarity: with all those killed & affected by the murderous oil/car culture & its side-effects, ruining our cities & planet .
-  Celebrating: the sustainable culture & economics of cycling. You are one less car!
-  Celebrating: the excitement of Halloween weekend. Let the devil in you ride out!
-  Bring whistles, flags, music, witches hats, ghostly masks, theatrics, smiles, friends, flyers, toolkits, and more. Let's Party!
Bikes, skateboards, roller blades, wheelchairs, pogo sticks etc – all self-propelled transport forms are welcome

Thank you for not driving.

A critical mass ride is a coming together of like-minded people travelling collectively in any particular direction. We do not block the traffic, we are the traffic, and we are held up & polluted by cars and the oil-petrol-car culture.
