

Cambridge Indymedia presents:

7.30pm Sunday 13 November

film @ the Geldart, 1 Ainsworth St

Land and Freedom

This film covers the events of the Spanish Civil War from the perspective of an English volunteer who joins the international resistance to the fascists. The experience proves far less heroic than expected, however, as they struggle with poor supplies, a lack of training, and internal discord. An idealist who assumes that fighting the good fight will unite him and his international comrades, instead he learns of deep divisions on everything from battle tactics to political philosophy.

<http://cambridge.indymedia.org.uk/>

~ not to be flyposted ~