Reclaim St George's Day Freedom Weekend – 22nd/23rd

The weekend starts with an overnight camp at Runnymede (where the Magna Carta was signed) on the 22nd. Then from 1pm on the 23rd there will be a picnic/party in the Peace Gardens at the Imperial War Museum, a March from there to Parliament Square and a tea party and burning of (and game of cricket for the Ashes of) the Magna Carta and s132 of SOCPA. There is also a morning picnic at St Georges Hill Weybridge, on the golf course at the site where the Diggers began their revolutionary commune.

Action Medic Training - 21st to 23rd

Would you know how to help someone if:

- * They collapsed at a demo?
- * They were hit by a police baton?
- * They were suffering from the cold on a protest site?

Planning Meeting to Stop the War on Iran – Friday 21st at 6.30pm

The US war on Iran has passed from contingency planning to an operational phase. The urgency of the situation cannot be overstated. Immediate action is required and the Campaign Against Sanctions and Military Intervention in Iran (CASMI) calls on all peace supporters and activists to attend a planning meeting at the Imperial College for the campaign to stop war on Iran.
