Justice for Atenco! Protest – Friday 19th at 12.30pm

On the 3rd May thousands of police entered the village of Texcoco, 15 miles away from San Salvador Atenco, Mexico, and brutally harassed, detained, sexual violated, 'disappeared' & even killed ordinary people and residents for daring to dream, live that dream, and defend it from state repression. The police were being used as hired goons to supposedly remove street flower sellers, answering market forces' orders to clear the way for a new WALMART superstore. These street flower sellers were members of the People's Front United in Defence of the Land (FPDT), a campesino organisation based in nearby San Salvador Atenco municipality that grew out of a successful, very militant struggle in 2001 and 2002 against plans to build a new international airport for Mexico City on local farmland. They then declared San Salvador Atenco an Autonomous Municipality. We will demonstrate outside the Mexican embassy in solidarity with those affected. The Mexican embassy is at 16 St George Street, Hanover Sq. London W1S 1LX. More info at www.indymedia.org.uk/en/topics/zapatista

Bush in Wonderland – Saturday 20th at 2pm

Join Campaign against Climate Change for a mad emitters tea party in the park. To highlight the Bush administrations' loss of touch with reality. Live music, jugglers & street performers. At the American embassy Grosvenor Square W1. www.campaignccc.org

Demonstration against the occupation of Palestine – Saturday 20th at 12pm

Israel's brutal occupation of the Palestinian people is creating a humanitarian crisis. The Israeli government has decided to strengthen the economic blockade of the Palestinian people. Dov Weisglass, the Israeli prime minister's adviser, joked 'It's like an appointment with a dietitian. The Palestinians will get a lot thinner, but won't die'. Assemble 12 noon, Embankment. Rally in Trafalgar Square. www.palestinecampaign.org
