

ACADEMICS AND STUDENTS OUTRAGED BY UNIVERSITY “TERROR” ARRESTS

On Wednesday 14th May 2008 a student and a member of staff were arrested by police under the Terrorism Act 2000 before being released without charge 6 days later.

The arrests were in relation to ‘radical material’, which the individuals were in possession of for research purposes. This material is on reading lists in the School of Politics.

The Times Higher has asserted that the arrests were made after the University called the Police. Police told an academic that this event never would have occurred if the persons involved had been “blond, Swedish PHD students”.

DEMONSTRATION

28th - 2pm Wednesday
outside the Hallward

a PUBLIC READING of the RESEARCH MATERIAL that led to the
“TERROR” ARRESTS

followed by SILENT DEMONSTRATION
to the Trent Building to protest
this violation of
ACADEMIC FREEDOM

ACADEMICS AND STUDENTS OUTRAGED BY UNIVERSITY “TERROR” ARRESTS

On Wednesday 14th May 2008 a student and a member of staff were arrested by police under the Terrorism Act 2000 before being released without charge 6 days later.

The arrests were in relation to ‘radical material’, which the individuals were in possession of for research purposes. This material is on reading lists in the School of Politics.

The Times Higher has asserted that the arrests were made after the University called the Police. Police told an academic that this event never would have occurred if the persons involved had been “blond, Swedish PHD students”.

DEMONSTRATION

28th - 2pm Wednesday
outside the Hallward

a PUBLIC READING of the RESEARCH
MATERIAL that led to the
“TERROR” ARRESTS

followed by SILENT DEMONSTRATION
to the Trent Building to protest
this violation of
ACADEMIC FREEDOM