Re: Forced removal of Christine Nakato Nankya on 27th November 2012 (Home Office Ref N1172128)

Flight QR76 to Entebbe and Flight QR536 15.05hrs on Tuesday 27th November 2012

To whom it may concern,

I'm writing about a young woman called Christine Nakato Nankya from Uganda.

Christine came to the UK only last year to claim asylum. She was subject to years of sexual abuse by members of her family as well as being caught up in a family feud over land between her four brothers.

She is in danger of being killed by her brothers if returned to Uganda.

Christine has been in detention in Yarlswood detention centre since April this year, she is experiencing nightmares, severe sleep disturbance despite her doctors prescribing medication, she is finding it difficult to eat and is having suicidal thoughts.

Please do not fly this woman to Uganda where she will face many problems.

I respectfully ask Qatar Airways to take her off the flight so she can return to his friends in the local community in Glasgow.

Yours truly,
